

THE DAILY NEWS

OUR MOTTO: HOPE AND HUSTLE

SOUTH MALESTER, INDIAN TERRITORY WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1907

NUMBER 2807

THE CANDIDATES ARE IN A RED HOT FINISH

Democratic Office Seekers Are Moving Heaven and Earth to Secure an Advantage for Saturday's Primaries

The day of judgment for the democratic candidates is near, and the candidates are moving up mighty big to all of the office seekers and there is a terrible scramble to get in some effective last look. The post office is flooded with "Shot" literature. Pamphlets and cards, dodgers and posters, bearing charges and counter charges are flying through the mails and are being scattered over the country as fast as men and money can distribute them. The candidates are now in the home stretch and the way they are securing the country for votes makes even the busiest citizen sit up and take notice. The streets are full of candidates with little paste board boxes under their arms. These boxes are full of candidate cards, and no one can escape being deluged with these cards. The candidate is now on

THEY WILL BE HEARD

Injunction Cases Will be Taken Up by Supreme Court On June 12.

WILL FILE ORIGINAL

Copy of the Constitution, Says Ledbetter, if the Pancoast Injunction is Dissolved: Bierer Says Election Can be Called Nunc Pro Tunc.

News Special Service. Guthrie, Ok., June 5.—The constitutional questions raised in the application for injunction against the calling of an election in the new state will be heard before the supreme court on June 12. At the session yesterday the attorneys were given until the 10th to file their briefs on the application to advance the cases on the docket for this session of court. On the 12th and 13th arguments will be heard, one day being given to each side to present the merits of the contentions. The three cases now before the supreme court will be heard at the same time as the same issues are involved. Associate Justice Garber was absent when court was convened yesterday at 10.30. Chief Justice Burford, Associate Justices Irwin, Burwell, Hainer, Pancoast and Gillette being present. The cases on the docket were assigned for hearing. When the appeal from the district court of Logan county case was reached on the docket ex-Associate Justice Bierer asked that the motion made for advancing the Woods County cases, decided recently by Judge Pancoast, be assigned for hearing at the same time, as virtually the same points are involved, as in Green County cases. To Take Time to Answer. In the Green County suits, stated that the questions involved are of greater interest to people of the state than any other ever before the courts and as the brief filed by the attorney for the constitution in the Woods County cases covers over eighty printed pages, it will be difficult to prepare an answer without great care and a thorough study of the arguments. Attorney Neah, who represents the Woods County petitioners, has not been able to prepare a brief owing to the short time in which he has received it, and the court gave until the 10th for the completion of the printed arguments. In addition to the briefs two days will be taken up in oral arguments, one of the greatest arrays of legal talent appearing in the state cases ever before a court in the territory. On the side which will attempt to protect the action of the convention in framing the constitution are ex-Chief Justice Frank Dale, Ex-Associate Justice A. G. C. Bierer, Henry E. Asp, of Guthrie, Delegate Ledbetter of Ardmore, Delegate M. J. Kofke of Chickasha, Delegate Bob Williams of Durant, and Delegate Johnston of Perry. Arranged on the opposing side are ex-prominent lawyer, ex-United States District Attorney Horace Speed of Guthrie, County Attorney Chas. M. Thacker, of Mangum, Attorneys A. T. Stewart and A. R. Garrett of Mangum, Colonel S. M. Snoddy and A. H. Nash of Alva, J. O. McCollister of Altus and Virgil M. Hobbs of Kingfisher. Bierer's Idea. Former Associate Justice Bierer of Guthrie, says he holds that when the issuance of the proclamation is held up by a court injunction, the time limit does not run and that the proclamation may be issued as late as June 6. Delegate W. A. Ledbetter, of Ardmore, one of the convention attorneys, says that he will file an original copy of the constitution and election ordinance with the secretary of the territory immediately if the supreme court dissolves the Pancoast injunction, thus arranging matters so that Governor Frank's may issue the proclamation.

"ALFALFA WILLIAM" GETS INTO ACTION

He Makes a Characteristic Speech For Haskell and of Course Scores His Enemies.

Alfalfa William Murray was completely "flabbergasted" last night. The premature printing of his election proclamation by the Capital greatly worried the tall grass politician. When seen by a News man at the hotel for his speech he said: "The proclamation was intended for publication June 14. I have just had a long distance telephone communication with the advisory board asking me to recall the proclamation on account of the agreement of the court to push the injunction case. I wired back that I think the board's judgment is fair, but I might consent if I knew the court would really get busy. I may call off the proclamation and then reconvene the convention June 14. I don't know what I will do. I will be able to tell you after my speech." After the speech Mr. Murray was seen at the hotel. He seemed to be greatly worried and completely exhausted. When asked if he had reached a decision in regard to the recall of his proclamation he said: "No, I haven't got a word to say." Mr. Murray left early this morning, when it developed through the morning papers that in all probability there will be no publication of the call, which means that he has reconsidered, or rather yielded to advice and will not issue it at all. "Alfalfa's" Speech. The Federal court room was crowded for the general government conditions across the "divide" and ten. He took a sidestroke at one or two wounds before the primary and wound up in a general tirade of party and abuse of the republicans daily. In short, he delivered a typical B. I. Murray speech.

A FINE ROADWAY

IS BEING BUILT ON WEST CHEROKEE AVENUE BY GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION.

A large force of men have been at work on West Cherokee avenue building the model road. This work has been pushed with great rapidity and the Good Roads Association is building its model road in a manner that will insure very little cost; for repairs for some time to come. P. F. Sutton, who is assisting in the good roads movement and who is largely responsible for the big improvement in West Cherokee avenue, is now at work on improvement districts in the First and Fourth wards. The First ward property owners are nearly ready to take definite action in regard to measurements on Madison avenue. In the Fourth ward a mile and a quarter of good road will be built at an early date. Mr. Loucks and his force will be kept busy on good roads for many months in this city.

SHE WENT SOME

CAT RODE ON DRAW BAR POCKET OF A KATY ENGINE.

A cat distinguished herself yesterday through no fault of her own by taking a ride on the draw bar pocket under the engine. While the train was passing through Atoka, a cat attempted to run across ahead of the train and apparently was run over. The engineer noticed the apparent catastrophe at the time but made no report. After reaching Denison the engine was run down to the roundhouse and cleaned out. The men in working on the locomotive found the cat sitting on the draw-bar pocket about the size of a cigar box. Instead of being instantly killed, the cat had jumped up onto the shell of the engine as it passed over her and there rode safely.

ORGAN RECITAL

AT MASCNIC TEMPLE WILL BE GIVEN WEDNESDAY JUNE 12.

The organ recital and exhibition of scenery and costumes at the new Mascnic temple will be given June 12. The recital and exhibition which is awaited with great interest by hundreds has been postponed once as the large organ was not completed in time. Tickets for admission are now being printed and an elaborate musical program is being arranged for the occasion. The beautiful scenery and the costumes valued at thousands of dollars will be fully exhibited and the organ which is one of the finest of its kind in the country. Masons of any degree can obtain admission tickets. No tickets will be given to non members.

BURGLARS GET BUSY

ENTERED THREE STORES IN THE NORTH END LAST NIGHT.

Burglars got busy in the North End last night. The store of S. H. Barnes & Co., Sillix Drug Store, and the Tobolovsky clothing store, were entered. At S. H. Barnes & Co., entrance was gained by crawling through the transom. Several revolvers, some ammunition and a number of files were taken. The cash drawer was broken open, but the burglars got nothing for their trouble. The burglars evidently tried on a suit of clothes at this store from the appearance of the stock. Blood was found on one of the vault doors, and it is thought the burglars cut his hand in climbing over the transom. The front door was found open this morning. The lights which are always left burning in the store were turned out. At the Tobolovsky store several suits and hats were taken. Several pairs of shoes were also missing. Only a few trinkets were taken from the Sillix drug store. The officers have no clue in the matter.

Mrs. E. R. Craig has left for Columbia, S. C., where she will spend several weeks visiting her mother.

OFFICER IN ROW HAVE A TICKET

INDIAN POLICEMAN OF CHICKASHA SEIZES HIS GUN.

Special to the News. Chickasha, June 5.—Tom Lee, an Indian policeman, arrested in the suppression of the liquor traffic, entered an alleged gambling house here last night and seized a game of billiards. He was then seized by the proprietor, who attempted to confiscate the paraphernalia and arrest the men. A pistol and a revolver which Lee's gun was taken from him and one of the proprietors broke up. The deputy marshal was called and upon charge of arresting a man on charge of running a gambling house and two for assault. The trial was not allowed and the report went by Lee that he could not get any help from officers here.

SOCIALISTS HAVE NOMINATED CANDIDATES AND WILL PUT UP A FIGHT.

The Socialists of Pittsburg county have put a ticket in the field. A meeting was held at Krebs and candidates were selected for the entire ticket with the exception of Probate Judge and County Attorney. The Socialists say they will cut a big hole in the democratic vote and the democrats realize that such is the case and there is now on a big scramble to get the troublesome candidates out of the way. The Socialists say they will stay until the last vote is cast and mean to land some of the offices. They believe the time has come to make themselves felt in Pittsburg is a harmless piece of metal of itself, but put enough powder behind it and it becomes an irresistible force. Goodness and peace. A box of cost, composed of pleasant appearance, is the powder behind the matchless command of Mr. A. R. Grand. A special mention at this time is the line of CORAL MOONBAY HAT PINS which have just reached the store. They come in many styles and shapes and range in price from 10c to 50c.

A CANNON BALL

Jos. Mazer

HERE is no merchandise so staple as Diamonds they last a lifetime never wear out, never go out of style and have an established value in every country the world over.

Diamonds are steadily advancing in price, there is no telling how high they will go, as the supply is decreasing all the time, while the demand is increasing.

The conditions are remarkable when you stop to consider that all the world gets its supply of Diamonds from one set of mines; it is a wonder that they cost so little now.

Remember you can wear one of our diamonds for a year and then cash it in at full purchase price.

The McIntyre-Shortess Co.
Jewelers
DIAMOND IMPORTERS
MANUFACTURING JEWELERS
151 & 153 Wabash Ave. CHICAGO

THE DAILY NEWS

South McAlester, Indian Territory.

PUBLISHED BY THE NEWS PRINTING COMPANY (Incorporated.) W. E. BROWNE, President L. R. CALONKEY, Manager.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Evening and Sunday $4.00 By mail per year, $40.00 By carrier, per month $4.00

TELEPHONES: President 126 Editorial Rooms 192 Manager and Job Department 64

Issued Every Day Except Saturday.

Entered at the postoffice at South McAlester, I. T., as second class mail.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1907.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The News is authorized to announce the candidacy of Frank Frantz as a candidate for governor of Oklahoma subject to the will of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Gen. J. H. Gray for sheriff of Pittsburg county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The News is authorized to announce the candidacy of Par W. Anthony for representative of Pittsburg county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The News is authorized to announce Alf McCay as a candidate for sheriff of Pittsburg county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The News is authorized to announce the name of J. H. Rose of Ashland, as a candidate for the office of representative of Pittsburg county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The News is authorized to announce A. A. Maynard as a candidate for constable of McAlester township Pittsburg county, subject to the action of the democratic primary, June 5th.

REDUCTIO AD ABSURDUM.

The latest topknot stunt in the political arena tonight that is being played by the democrats is the manifesto issued by Alfalfa Bill Murray calling the election under the proposed constitution, and fixing the day on which it is to be held—the day selected originally, and which would have been legal under a legal call. Alfalfa William has undoubtedly performed this graceful coup to keep the record straight, and without the faintest idea that it will amount to a row of pins in straightening out the middle into which the democratic party has gotten the steeplehead proposition.

It is doubtful if the man who wants to render himself up in vicarious atonement for the blunders of the democratic party is moved by any other purpose than to contribute in some intangible way to the embarrassment of that faction of democratic leaders who favor the reconvening of the convention and the repeal of one or two, and the modification of others of the provisions of the constitution. There are several reasons why Mr. Murray may not want a reassembling of the convention, the controlling one being perhaps that it would undoubtedly complete the wreck of that faction of the party of which, next to Boss Haskell, he is the chief, and which is doomed to a setback next Saturday. It is certain that Murray and Haskell are looking beyond next Saturday's primaries. They might be willing to a reassembling of the convention, even with the danger of the county boundary and the county seat question being opened up if they were absolutely sure of a Haskell victory at the primary polls next Saturday. The prospects of any such a victory are too remote to risk any such chance, for Mr. Murray had to call that election yesterday or today to give it any semblance of authority.

What he expects to accomplish by it is not to be conjectured by any reasonably sane person. There is not a court or official on earth who would count such an election if held.

The situation is "a very serious one" to the legal recognition of his election officers. There is no board of authority that would or could be compelled to canvass and return the votes cast at such an election. There can not be, as a matter of fact, any election called by anybody, until the original of the proposed constitution is properly filed.

Nothing quite so absurd has happened in all the range of political juggle as this. Since the above was written Mr. Murray has recalled his call, which renders the whole proceedings that much more absurd.

PERVERTED JOURNALISM.

Southwest American. The death of the Chicago Chronicle is worthy of note in relation to the efforts of rich men to subvert journalism to the service of their own powers and privileges. It was a newspaper of exceptional ability when it fell into the hands of John R. Walsh, and continued thereafter to be ably conducted. But it lost greatly by wholly in public influence as soon as its Walsh relationship became known, and could not have been expected to survive.

There is a very great difference between a combination to perform a public service and a combination to plunder the public. The leaders of the contending Haskell and Cruce forces are frantic in their closing appeals to the honest voter, and as frantic in their honest voicing of their protest against the overreaching success. If you listen to Alfalfa Bill, the boss has swiped the nomination and kept it safe in his locker; if you listen to Moman Prulett, the boss is the worse beaten man that ever went through a race.

GATHER AT MONTE NE

In declaring that no one man can run the United States, Senator Foraker spoke from comparative experience. He has tried to run the state of Ohio with only a modicum of success.

It is pretty tolerably easy to understand why Messrs. Murray and Haskell do not want the convention back in session. Nothing that is likely to occur after Saturday is likely to help Mr. Haskell politically.

Globe Democrat: An appeal has been made to President Roosevelt to veto the Oklahoma constitution in accordance with his ideas of equality and justice. This will secure the full protection of the rough rider in all of his rights.

An exchange says: "All the free traders want the tariff revised." They are against all protection, but prefer to state the case in another way until they can get the entering wedge fairly inserted. Uncle Sam will stand pat against free traders."

Alfalfa's assaults upon the Judiciary, in which he is more vindictive than others of his contemporary windhammers, will affect his gang pretty much as the democratic national platform attack on the federal judiciary affected Bryan in 1896.

As a matter of historical interest the St. Louis Globe-Democrat notes that: "Strangely enough, the Indian is making his last stand in Oklahoma just at a time when the white man is celebrating the anniversary of his first stand at Jamestown."

This neck of the woods must be well worth fighting for, among the democrats, with Saturday but three days off. Last night we had Alfalfa, and tonight Cruce is on deck. The boys are having their fun while they can get it. When the real election comes—some time in the uncertain future—the county will go republican.

The more moderate of Mr. Cruce's boomers place his majority in Saturday's primaries at 40,000. That's going some—since it would leave only about 5,000 to be divided between Doyle and Haskell, according to the most extravagant estimates of the town vote.

Senator Cullom expressed the opinion that "that man Harriman ought to be hanged by sticking out 'grain' and inserting 'hokey'." The South Carolina evidently has a warmer feeling for the railroad magnate than has the Illinoisan.

Nobody is undertaking to prophesy the Saturday results in the races for the minor state offices, nor in fact does there seem to be any great interest in the contests for the United States senatorships. The race for the gubernatorial nomination overshadows everything.

The situation is "a very serious one" to the legal recognition of his election officers. There is no board of authority that would or could be compelled to canvass and return the votes cast at such an election.

A perpetual democratic primary would be a good thing financially for certain industries. Our livey stables would be kept in small change by the town candidates and the out of town candidates would keep the head long touseled busy. That's been the experience of the last two weeks.

Messrs. Vardaman and Williams are running against each other for the United States senate down in Mississippi. They are making just such noises as have been indulged in by the candidates for the democratic gubernatorial nomination in Oklahoma. In other words they are having the regulation democratic time down in old Massassipi.

Standard Oil Magnate H. H. Rogers, sojourning in Paris, has been rejoicing that part of President Roosevelt's Indianapolis address which commended the combination of farmers to build and maintain good roads, as inconsistent with his attack upon "combinations" in general.

The leaders of the contending Haskell and Cruce forces are frantic in their closing appeals to the honest voter, and as frantic in their honest voicing of their protest against the overreaching success. If you listen to Alfalfa Bill, the boss has swiped the nomination and kept it safe in his locker; if you listen to Moman Prulett, the boss is the worse beaten man that ever went through a race.

GATHER AT MONTE NE

In declaring that no one man can run the United States, Senator Foraker spoke from comparative experience. He has tried to run the state of Ohio with only a modicum of success.

It is pretty tolerably easy to understand why Messrs. Murray and Haskell do not want the convention back in session. Nothing that is likely to occur after Saturday is likely to help Mr. Haskell politically.

Globe Democrat: An appeal has been made to President Roosevelt to veto the Oklahoma constitution in accordance with his ideas of equality and justice. This will secure the full protection of the rough rider in all of his rights.

An exchange says: "All the free traders want the tariff revised." They are against all protection, but prefer to state the case in another way until they can get the entering wedge fairly inserted. Uncle Sam will stand pat against free traders."

Alfalfa's assaults upon the Judiciary, in which he is more vindictive than others of his contemporary windhammers, will affect his gang pretty much as the democratic national platform attack on the federal judiciary affected Bryan in 1896.

As a matter of historical interest the St. Louis Globe-Democrat notes that: "Strangely enough, the Indian is making his last stand in Oklahoma just at a time when the white man is celebrating the anniversary of his first stand at Jamestown."

This neck of the woods must be well worth fighting for, among the democrats, with Saturday but three days off. Last night we had Alfalfa, and tonight Cruce is on deck. The boys are having their fun while they can get it. When the real election comes—some time in the uncertain future—the county will go republican.

The more moderate of Mr. Cruce's boomers place his majority in Saturday's primaries at 40,000. That's going some—since it would leave only about 5,000 to be divided between Doyle and Haskell, according to the most extravagant estimates of the town vote.

Senator Cullom expressed the opinion that "that man Harriman ought to be hanged by sticking out 'grain' and inserting 'hokey'." The South Carolina evidently has a warmer feeling for the railroad magnate than has the Illinoisan.

Nobody is undertaking to prophesy the Saturday results in the races for the minor state offices, nor in fact does there seem to be any great interest in the contests for the United States senatorships. The race for the gubernatorial nomination overshadows everything.

Have men hitting over 200. They are Mitchell, Applegate, Randolph and Heister, pliers; Wood and Carman, catchers; and Kelly, Money and Cannon, holders.

Western Canada Baseball League has four teams this season, Calgary, Edmonton, Medicine Hat and Lethbridge. The majority of the players come from New England states.

Frank Selee's Public team is still at the bottom in the Western League race, with Des Moines and Omaha fighting for the lead.

There is not a baseball organization in the entire country that is putting up a better race than the Central League. But 185 points separate the first and last teams.

Captain W. T. Crawford, of Shreveport is mentioned as a possible successor of President Kavanaugh of the southern league, who probably resigns if he is elected Governor of Arkansas.

Bids will be received at the General Office of the M. K. & T. Ry. Co., Civil Department, at Parsons, Kan., for the office of the Company at Coalgate, I. T., until July 1st, for the sinking of a shaft 7 1/2 feet in the clear, to a depth of approximately 500 feet.

Plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the Company at Coalgate, I. T.

The successful bidder will be required to give bond for the faithful performance of the work.

The company reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

J. H. HIBBEN, 224 Supt. M. K. & T. Coal-Dept.

A Penny Saved. "When Benjamin Franklin wrote 'A penny saved is a penny earned,' he did not mean a penny skimmed from our daily living or from our necessities. That is not 'a penny saved' in the best sense. It is a penny stolen from yourself. A penny saved is a penny rescued from waste. An hour taken from needed sleep is not an hour saved, but an hour stolen. A penny taken from idle gossip and turned to some good account—that is an hour saved. And it is the same way with our money and our products. There is no economy in self denial. It is the duty of every man and woman to live the fullest and best life possible, to get the most they can out of life. To maintain the body, mind and soul and to develop them to the highest possible degree. This cannot be done by skimping. Economy is necessary but we must not mistake what economy is. We must save the wastes, stop the leaks, but, having saved, we must put our savings to some good use, else we are like the miser with his gold—a detriment to society instead of a good.—Exchange.

How to Prevent Nightmares. Referring to the frequency with which unpleasant dreams and more particularly the classical nightmare occur, Dr. Schlegel, the Münster specialist says: "Persons who are subject to disturbances of this sort should allow three or four hours to elapse between the last meal and going to bed; should not let the last meal be too heavy a load and should make it a point to avoid all indigestible dishes and alcoholic drinks with the evening meal."

World Regeneration. The world will only be regenerated by degrees and by reform of human character, a task that will always and of necessity remain the task of each and every member of the human race.—Saturday Review.

When Chapple got up the other morning he wandered round his apartment in his pretty pink pajamas, the very picture of woe. "What's the matter, sir?" inquired his valet. "I don't know, a phone," he groaned. "I passed a most unhappy night." "Oh, sir," he exclaimed, "I know what was the matter. The transpiring of your pajamas were not crossed. You must be more careful, sir. There I had prepared for you were hanging across the foot of the bed."—Bohemian Magazine.

Canine. Canine, where Hannibal won his greatest victory over the Romans, is situated on the opposite side of the peninsula from the city of Rome, on the first Ausonian spur about six miles from its mouth. It rises from its hill-tops that Hannibal sent to Carthage three bushels of gold rings from the fingers of the Roman knights slain in the battle. Canine is about 200 miles from Rome.

The Word Turned. "Am I to understand then," asked a disappointed poet as the editor handed back his latest production, "that you do not like my verses?" "Yes; I don't think much." "Are you don't think—I see—that explains it."

World Regeneration. The world will only be regenerated by degrees and by reform of human character, a task that will always and of necessity remain the task of each and every member of the human race.—Saturday Review.

When Chapple got up the other morning he wandered round his apartment in his pretty pink pajamas, the very picture of woe. "What's the matter, sir?" inquired his valet. "I don't know, a phone," he groaned. "I passed a most unhappy night." "Oh, sir," he exclaimed, "I know what was the matter. The transpiring of your pajamas were not crossed. You must be more careful, sir. There I had prepared for you were hanging across the foot of the bed."—Bohemian Magazine.

Canine. Canine, where Hannibal won his greatest victory over the Romans, is situated on the opposite side of the peninsula from the city of Rome, on the first Ausonian spur about six miles from its mouth. It rises from its hill-tops that Hannibal sent to Carthage three bushels of gold rings from the fingers of the Roman knights slain in the battle. Canine is about 200 miles from Rome.

The Word Turned. "Am I to understand then," asked a disappointed poet as the editor handed back his latest production, "that you do not like my verses?" "Yes; I don't think much." "Are you don't think—I see—that explains it."

World Regeneration. The world will only be regenerated by degrees and by reform of human character, a task that will always and of necessity remain the task of each and every member of the human race.—Saturday Review.

OLD WIVES.

Reasons Why Ancient Pileups Are Not Permitted. Pileups are sometimes paid for old wives, and many an enthusiastic musician would part with his last dollar to possess one of the marvellous of Stradivarius or Guarneri, or as a matter of fact, a fiddle of a century or two ago.

The questioned superiority of these old and often battered instruments has been variously ascribed to the peculiar quality of the varnish used in their construction, to the elasticity of the wood employed and to the ripening and improving effects of age and long use.

Of late years, however, much credence has been given the suggestion of an eminent authority that the real cause of the superiority of the old instruments is due to a peculiar warping of the wood to a higher arch, a buckling caused by the position of the "holes and sound post."

It might at first thought be supposed that the same effect could be produced by giving an equal arching to a new instrument, but the effect, if attained, is not permanent, because with age the arching increases until too great a degree of rigidity is the result.—Philadelphia Record.

"Plugging" a Hotel Guest. The elevator and walked over to the counter. "Well, I plugged him," he said. "Plugged him? Who? What? Where did you hit him?" quickly asked the waiter who was standing by.

"Didn't hit him anywhere. Just plugged the handle of his door. You hear he plugged before? When we have a guest whom we suspect is getting ready to leave without settling or whose credit is exhausted and fails to settle up, we just plug the handle of his room and hold the handle in his door. Then he has to settle up or leave his baggage. The plug fits over the end of a key—it prevents the lock and turned. The key is then withdrawn, leaving the door closed.—Kansas City Star.

An Oversight. When Chapple got up the other morning he wandered round his apartment in his pretty pink pajamas, the very picture of woe. "What's the matter, sir?" inquired his valet. "I don't know, a phone," he groaned. "I passed a most unhappy night." "Oh, sir," he exclaimed, "I know what was the matter. The transpiring of your pajamas were not crossed. You must be more careful, sir. There I had prepared for you were hanging across the foot of the bed."—Bohemian Magazine.

Canine. Canine, where Hannibal won his greatest victory over the Romans, is situated on the opposite side of the peninsula from the city of Rome, on the first Ausonian spur about six miles from its mouth. It rises from its hill-tops that Hannibal sent to Carthage three bushels of gold rings from the fingers of the Roman knights slain in the battle. Canine is about 200 miles from Rome.

The Word Turned. "Am I to understand then," asked a disappointed poet as the editor handed back his latest production, "that you do not like my verses?" "Yes; I don't think much." "Are you don't think—I see—that explains it."

World Regeneration. The world will only be regenerated by degrees and by reform of human character, a task that will always and of necessity remain the task of each and every member of the human race.—Saturday Review.

When Chapple got up the other morning he wandered round his apartment in his pretty pink pajamas, the very picture of woe. "What's the matter, sir?" inquired his valet. "I don't know, a phone," he groaned. "I passed a most unhappy night." "Oh, sir," he exclaimed, "I know what was the matter. The transpiring of your pajamas were not crossed. You must be more careful, sir. There I had prepared for you were hanging across the foot of the bed."—Bohemian Magazine.

Canine. Canine, where Hannibal won his greatest victory over the Romans, is situated on the opposite side of the peninsula from the city of Rome, on the first Ausonian spur about six miles from its mouth. It rises from its hill-tops that Hannibal sent to Carthage three bushels of gold rings from the fingers of the Roman knights slain in the battle. Canine is about 200 miles from Rome.

The Word Turned. "Am I to understand then," asked a disappointed poet as the editor handed back his latest production, "that you do not like my verses?" "Yes; I don't think much." "Are you don't think—I see—that explains it."

World Regeneration. The world will only be regenerated by degrees and by reform of human character, a task that will always and of necessity remain the task of each and every member of the human race.—Saturday Review.

When Chapple got up the other morning he wandered round his apartment in his pretty pink pajamas, the very picture of woe. "What's the matter, sir?" inquired his valet. "I don't know, a phone," he groaned. "I passed a most unhappy night." "Oh, sir," he exclaimed, "I know what was the matter. The transpiring of your pajamas were not crossed. You must be more careful, sir. There I had prepared for you were hanging across the foot of the bed."—Bohemian Magazine.

Canine. Canine, where Hannibal won his greatest victory over the Romans, is situated on the opposite side of the peninsula from the city of Rome, on the first Ausonian spur about six miles from its mouth. It rises from its hill-tops that Hannibal sent to Carthage three bushels of gold rings from the fingers of the Roman knights slain in the battle. Canine is about 200 miles from Rome.

The Word Turned. "Am I to understand then," asked a disappointed poet as the editor handed back his latest production, "that you do not like my verses?" "Yes; I don't think much." "Are you don't think—I see—that explains it."

World Regeneration. The world will only be regenerated by degrees and by reform of human character, a task that will always and of necessity remain the task of each and every member of the human race.—Saturday Review.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Druids in Session. News Special Service. Indianapolis, Ind., June 5.—The Indiana grand body of the United Ancient Order of Druids, in forty-seventh annual session here, today heard a number of reports relating to the affairs of the order in its state. These reports showed nineteen local branches in the state with an aggregate membership of about 1000, a slight increase over the figures of last year.

Students Receive Their Degrees. News Special Service. Auburn, Ala., June 5.—Many visitors who attend the commencement exercises today at the Alabama Polytechnic Institute, President Thach conferred the degrees and the address to the graduates was delivered by Dr. E. B. Craighead, president of Tusculum University.

West Point Cadets at Jamestown. News Special Service. Norfolk, Va., June 5.—A battalion of cadets from the United States Military Academy at West Point pitched camp at the Jamestown exposition today and will remain for one week. The cadets will form an escort of honor to President Roosevelt, which he comes for the Georgia Day celebration next Monday.

Elks in Session. News Special Service. Lafayette, Ind., June 5.—A merry crowd of visitors is in possession of Lafayette for the state-convention of Elks, which will be in session two days. While the delegates are engaged in their business sessions many entertainments have been arranged for other visiting Elks, and their families.

Sunday School Workers. News Special Service. Ft. Smith, Ark., June 5.—A host of enthusiastic Sunday school workers stormed Ft. Smith today and will remain in possession of the city until Saturday. The occasion is the annual convention of the state association of Texas, Little Rock, Van Buren, Pine Bluff and other cities and towns of the state are well represented.

Marriage Licenses. Geo. H. Summers and Mrs. Minnie Conroy, of Savannah; Thos. Sawyer and Mrs. Josephine Connor, of Hartshorne; Wm. Babb and Miss Viola M. Gan, of Hartsville, were licensed today by Clerk Fadlin.

Base Ball Sunday. The Fourth Ward base ball team will cross bats at the new ball park Sunday afternoon with the crack independent team from Shawnee. The Fourth Ward team has been considerably strengthened and a fast game is assured. Arrangements will be made for games at the new park every Sunday with the best independent teams in the two territories.

JAP ROSE Soap advertisement featuring an illustration of a woman in traditional Japanese attire. Text includes: 'JAP ROSE Soap', 'Transparent TOILET Soap', 'ITS FIVE STRONGEST POINTS ARE', 'It is transparent - so clear you can read through it.', 'It lathers freely in all kinds of water. For use in hard water its strongest point.', 'Women say there is nothing to equal it for washing the hair.', 'Made from the whitest, purest and best vegetable oils - oils that you can eat.', 'It's twice the size and less than one-half the cost of any brand of really good transparent soap.', 'At Drugists and Grocers EVERYWHERE', 'CHICAGO'.

THE DAILY NEWS

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1907.

NOTICE

Patrons will please note the following is the News' correct phone list: 126, W. E. Browne, President, 129, Editorial Rooms, 132, City Editor, 134, L. B. Caloney.

Heltman, the Tailor. J. E. Luck's sale dirt. Cheotaw Ice Co., Phone 25. M. J. Smith, Civil Engineer, Arnott building.

Mrs. Maude Smith, of Kansas City is visiting in the city. S. P. Hayden, of Holdenville, was here today on legal business.

S. L. Hoyer, of Dismal, was in town today on legal business. Miss Ida Rector left today for Houston, Tex., where she will spend the summer.

Mrs. R. L. Balcom, dressmaking and embroidery, 630 East Washington. W. J. Bain has been employed as a passenger brakeman on the south end of the Katy.

Shannon S. Smith, a prominent Red River planter is in the city visiting wife and baby. Mrs. Fletcher Cook, Fletcher Cook, Jr., and Mrs. W. B. Tarkington, Mrs. Cook's sister left last evening for Santa Fe, N. M., where they will spend the summer with their brother, General Abbot P. Tarkington.

The evangelistic services at the First M. E. Church are growing in interest and give every promise of being spiritually helpful to the members. Rev. M. N. Aldop, the pastor evangelist of Miami, I. T., will preach tonight. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Evangelistic Services Tonight at the First M. E. Church. Rev. E. S. Stockwell, superintendent of our Territorial work will preach; Rev. M. M. Alden will assist. J. I. POAG, Pastor.

No Meeting. The Chamber of Commerce meeting was so poorly attended last night that no work was done. Alfatia Bill was responsible for the small attendance. It is to be hoped that hereafter no political powwow will be allowed to interfere with the important work of the Chamber of Commerce.

Selling Tickets. The Chautauqua Association has opened an office at Landers' furniture store in the Arnott building building and Miss Miriam Cook will have charge of the sale of tickets and collection of money for tickets at this place.

Arrested for Slender. Buck Garner was arrested yesterday on Tannehill prairie charged with slender. It is claimed that Garner made remarks about a lady neighbor, who was not proper. Garner was brought to this city and gave bond in the sum of $700 bail for his appearance at the Commissioners' court, Wednesday, June 12.

AMUSEMENTS LANGSDALE OPERA HOUSE TO-NIGHT "UNDER SOUTHERN STAR" TO-MORROW NIGHT HER FIRST FALSE STEP MONDAY AND TUESDAY KU KLUX KLAN

Lyric Theatre

East Chestnut Avenue. Week beginning Monday, June 3rd.

THE KINGSBURY Comedy Musical Act. J. H. SHAW Singing, With Illustrations, "Some-where."

OSS and MADONLY European Juggling Comiques.

LYRSCOPE Portraying "An Affair of Honor," "The Wrestling Donkey" and "The Drunken Mattress."

Two Performances Nightly. Doors Open 7:30 p. m. First performance at 8 p. m., second at 9:15, admission 10c. Reserved seats 10c.

Matinee every Saturday, 3 p. m. Admission 10c. Amateur Night—Friday Night.

Gus Lewis has sold his butcher shop and grocery on South Main street, the old Billings' stand to Gus McKnight, of Hopkinsville, Ky. Mr. Lewis will leave in a few days for his old home in Indiana.

Mrs. Bell's School. Closing exercises consisting of speaking and singing will be held in the pupils of Mrs. Bell's school on Friday evening. Refreshments will be served and admittance is free to all.

BIG SUCCESS. Cecilia Club's Musical Was Very Largely Attended Last Night.

The musical given at Sans Souci park last night by the Cecilia musical club was a big success from every standpoint. A large audience assembled early and by the time the first number on the program was given the big auditorium was nearly filled. Every number on the program was highly enjoyed by all. The difficult compositions were rendered in a most finished manner and encores were numerous. McAlester can well be proud of its fine array of musical talent. The ladies of the Cecilia club deserve great praise for their work. The musical will be remembered as one of the most pleasant events of the year.

THURSDAY NIGHT

MASS MEETING WILL BE HELD FOR BIG FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.

Thursday evening at the court house there will be held a mass meeting for the purpose of laying plans for a big Fourth of July celebration which is calculated to bring several thousand visitors to this city. The McAlester Driving Association has a first class race track and is arranging for a series of races to be held on July 4, 5, 6. It is planned to hold a big celebration in connection with these races, which will also last three days. There will be several balloon ascensions, bicycle races, bagg' ball games, fire display of fireworks and probably a midway place will be erected at the park. The driving association does not feel that it can carry out the entire program unassisted. The members of the association feel that they should have some assistance from the business men of the city and it is for this purpose that the mass meeting will be held. At this meeting plans will be laid for the celebration and committees appointed so that active work on the big three days' picnic can be begun at once. The traction company will have its four-line extension completed by Thursday and there is no reason why the celebration can not be made a big success in every particular. The hearty co-operation of every citizen is asked and the court house should be filled Thursday night.

How a Stone Weighs. A stone is usually considered to be fourteen pounds, but a butcher's stone of dead meat is only eight pounds, a stone of cheese is thirteen pounds, a stone of glass is four pounds, while a stone of hemp runs to thirty-two pounds.—London Standard.

SOCIETY

The Monday Night Club met with Mrs. Lewyn Crockett this week. Mrs. Bolling and Mrs. Crockett made the high scores. The members that were present were: Mrs. Meigs, Mrs. Patters, Bradley, Wilkinson, Barton, Bolling, Clelland and Bevil and the hostess.

Mrs. R. J. Timmins of Galveston, Tex., Mrs. Lockard's guest returned to her home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Buell spent Sunday in the city.

Mr. Paul Busby returned home from Topeka, Kas., where he has been attending school.

Mrs. Sam Guerrier is very much better today.

Mrs. Lou Lounsbury will take the train for Oklahoma Tuesday.

Sunday dinner parties at the Busby are as popular as ever. Among the guests were: Mrs. H. H. Hale and Miss Hollingsworth, Mrs. Busby and Miss Doyle. At another Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lockard and their two guests, Mrs. Timmins and Mrs. Lockard, and at another Mr. and Mrs. Latham and their guest, Miss Le Seur.

Mrs. Porter of St. Louis will visit Mrs. Lincoln at the Busby this week.

THE SCHOONER

Where the Fore and After—Boss the. The ability of the schooner to meet the requirements of present day conditions, while the snide riggers have been found wanting, can be readily understood when we take into consideration the numerous advantages possessed by the fore and after rig that are essential to the ideal craft. In operating expense, that prime factor in all transportation problems, is here reduced to a minimum, for there is no motive power so cheap as the free winds of heaven and no other craft so well adapted to utilize and control this force. The sails are of immense draft and can be readily handled from the deck by a handful of men or with steam power if desired. The schooner can sail several points nearer the eye of the wind than a square rigger. Built on the old clipper model, they sail like witches and owing to their peculiar construction can be readily loaded and discharged. They require but little ballast and having no heavy top hamper can, if necessary, to trim, take on enormous deck loads. In the lumber traffic of the Pacific northwest yet these vessels leaving port with huge deck loads towering ten to fifteen feet above the rail. Occasionally they get caught in a blow and have to sacrifice a portion of the deck load, but when one meets such a mishap dozens reach their destinations safely and land their cargoes intact.—James G. McCurdy in Outing Magazine.

A GAME OF POKER.

It was an Object Lesson on Playing Cards With Strangers. A card sharp—well-known to the stewards of the great ocean liners was a passenger on a recent trip across the Gulf. He had the effect of keeping him out of the large games in the smoking room. He contented himself with pebbles and bridge at 25 cents a hundred points. On the evening before landing one of his bridge party, none of whom knew that he was a professional, had a bad night, proposed changing the game to poker. "It's bad practice," said the card sharp, "to play poker with strangers. There's too much risk, but it's all right in this case." The others said there was no risk if a man had good sense and kept his four fingers. And what games are the best? The deal fell to the professional, and when cards had been drawn by each man, he said: "Now I'll show you how much you know. Mr. A, your three queens look good, but what show have they against Mr. C's four aces? And what show are they against A's four kings? Does it tally?" It did, and A said, "Well, it's my pot." "I was afraid that might happen, so I dealt myself a straight flush." He showed it, aces from his chest to his feet. The deal fell to the professional. This was an object lesson—don't play poker with strangers.—New York Tribune.

The Barbareus. The word "barbareus" is derived from the Spanish word "barbarico" and is a native Haitian term for a wooden frame work supporting meat or fish to be smoked or dried over a fire. It is popular because it means a large social or political entertainment in the open air at which sheep or oxen are roasted whole and all the feasting is on a most liberal scale. Georgia is probably the native home of the barbecue and is called the "Barbecue State." The first barbecue is known to have been held at the "barbecue" house, near and other game constituted the meat roasted in the barbecue of fifty years ago.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

WEATHER FORECAST THURSDAY: PARTLY CLOUDY, PROBABLE SHOWERS

Large and Satisfying Assortment of Seasonable Boy's Suits The Model McALESTER'S GREATEST STORE

SARLLS ON LINEBAUGH

(Advertisement.) fraud practiced of Annie Tumbler, Central District.—68. Be it remembered that on this the 18th day of May, 1907, personally appeared before me the undersigned authority, Sarah Dyer and his wife, Sarah Dyer, to me well and personally known, who after being duly sworn, upon their oath stated as follows: to-wit: Our names are Sam Dyer and Sarah Dyer, nee Jennings, Ind. Ter., and we are members of the Choctaw Tribe of Indian by blood. Sarah Dyer, one of the infants herein, was related to Annie Tumbler deceased, being a sister to her, Annie Tumbler died Oct. 5th, 1905 and thereafter D. Hayden Linebaugh or Hayden Linebaugh claimed that Annie Tumbler had executed a will in which all the property of the said Annie Tumbler was devised to the said Linebaugh. That Sarah Dyer contested the probate of the said will attempted by John H. Linebaugh as executor for the benefit of Hayden Linebaugh which case is now pending in the United States court at Atoka, Ind. Ter., under the name of "In re Estate of Annie Tumbler." Annie Tumbler was an old woman 75 years old and a full blood Choctaw Indian; she was not competent to handle her property and was very easily influenced. She did not owe anybody anything and never had at any time mentioned Hayden Linebaugh to her, she was a simple-minded old woman and could not have known that such an instrument as a will could have been written. We knew nothing of the will to Linebaugh during the lifetime of Annie Tumbler; if any such will was executed, such execution resulted from

PLUMBING. The partnership heretofore existing between J. H. Cole and James Doyle, under the firm name of Cole & Doyle, being a general mercantile business at Bache, Indian Territory, is this day dissolved. Mr. Cole releases from the business, Mr. Doyle purchasing his interest. All persons owing the firm will please settle with Mr. Doyle.

MY REPAIRING. Is always of the best though my charges are very moderate. R. H. GEORGE. ELECTRICIAN AND PLUMBER. Corner 2nd and Choctaw. Phone 69.

NOTICE. The partnership heretofore existing between J. H. Cole and James Doyle, under the firm name of Cole & Doyle, being a general mercantile business at Bache, Indian Territory, is this day dissolved. Mr. Cole releases from the business, Mr. Doyle purchasing his interest. All persons owing the firm will please settle with Mr. Doyle. Bache, I. T., June 3, 1907. J. H. COLE. JAMES DOYLE.

LADIES WHO Wear Fine Lingerie. ought to know about our superior facilities for washing, starching, ironing and delivering the most dainty undergarments without injury to fabric or trimming. Such work as this should not be entrusted to incompetent people. Send the Fine Lingerie here, make a specialty of doing just what work. New Process Steam Laundry.

The Revival. The meetings at the Christian church continue with increasing interest. Monday night the attendance was the best of any Monday night service so far, and the meeting resulted in two additions to the church, both confessions the recruits of the Sunday School. The ordinance of baptism was administered to several candidates at the conclusion of the service. Evangelist Taboy is preaching very strong sermons and he is doing an immense amount of good in this city. The male quartette also lends much interest and enthusiasm to the work. The music is an attractive feature of the meetings under the direction of Mr. Edward McKinney.

You will find them at Fuller's Store CYCLONE THIS WEEK

- Ladies' Muslin Gowns trimmed with lace, this gown is cheap at 75c; you can have them this week at 50c. Ladies' Black Persian Lawn Shirt Waist-Drawn and Embroidery work. Fronts, regular $1.35; Waist this week, price $1.00. Pearl Buttons, worth 50c a dozen, this week price, 2 dozen for $1.00. Extra heavy Cheviot Shirtings, $2.50 value this week, a yard $1.00. 45c Milaneis Silk Mitts, white only, this week's price a pair $1.00. Over 500 gents Bow Ties, a regular 25c this week, price $1.10 each. Gents' Balbriggan Shirts and Drawers, they are worth 75c a suit, you can have them this week at $1.00 a suit. Safety Pins, 3 papers for $1.00.

Fuller's Store CYCLONE South Main Street, I. T. Phone 143