HUNDRED THOUSAND DEAD AND MANY MORE HOMELESS

EVERY NEW REPORT FROM THE EARTHQUAKE ZONE INCREASES THE NUMBER OF DEAD AND EXTENT OF THE DAMAGE DONE BY MONDAY'S QUAKE - POPE GIVES $200,000 TO RELIEF FUND.

HALF OF CALABRIA IS DEAD AND EASTERN SICILY IS DESOLATED

ONE TOWN WIPED OUT UTTERLY—THOUSANDS DYING IN RUINS, SOME BURNED TO DEATH, OTHERS STARVING—PEOPLE WALLOWED IN MIRE AND CALLED ON HELPLESS ROYALTY FOR SUCCOR WHICH ONLY PROVIDENCE COULD GIVE THEM.

ROME, Dec. 30.—Half of the population of Calabria and the eastern part of Sicily is dead. The other half is weeping. It seems impossible to exaggerate the horrors of Monday's earthquake. All of Italy is absolutely stunned. At the scene of the disaster the bulk of the people are literally dazed with the suddenness and the extent of the blow.

King Victor Emmanuel and his queen arrived at Messina today. The scene of disaster did not seem to touch for the queen, who almost swooned. Crowds of terror-stricken persons swarmed about the royal party, throwing themselves in the mud and screaming for pity and aid.

At Messina the great cathedral, the municipal buildings, the army barracks and the prisons are all destroyed. Of the 280 railway employes in the station at Messina only eight are known to have survived, while at Reggio the silence of death still reigns.

The volcano of Stromboli is active and the sea around the island is greatly agitated and dangerous to navigation.

From the latest estimates today it is feared that the total number of victims in Sicily and Calabria will reach more than 100,000 with a property damage of several hundred million dollars.

ENTIRE POPULATION OF BAGNARA DEAD

BAGNARA, Calabria, Dec. 30.—A report received here today says that the town of Bagnara on the Sicilian coast north of Reggio is completely wiped out, fire having finished the work of destruction. The report says that "all the inhabitants of Bagnara are dead." The town had a population of 10,000 people. Lame will be scattered over the beach of this which alone marks the site of the once populous town.

SURVIVORS BEING BURNED ALIVE AT MESSINA.

One of the Messina survivors says that only a small portion of the population of that city escaped death. Thousands of persons are still buried alive in the ruins, where they are suffering slow death by torture. The imprisoned people, pined in the debris and unable to extricate themselves, are being burned alive; others are lying in their injuries, while many are starving.

NO NEWS FROM AEOLIAN ISLANDS.

ROME, Dec. 30.—All cable communication with the Aeolian islands, situated in the Mediterranean north of the island of Sicily, has been interrupted, and it is feared that these islands also have been devastated by the earthquake.

Messina Ship Wiped Out. At the time of the earthquake the torpedo boat Sappho was lying in the harbor at Messina and one of the officers told of the occurrence as follows:

At half past five in the morning the sea suddenly became terribly agitated, seeming literally to pick up our boat and shake it. Other craft nearby were similarly treated and the ships looked like bits of cork bobbing about in a mist. Almost immediately a tidal wave of huge proportions swept across the harbor, striking the coasts and carrying everything before it. Scores of ships were damaged and the Hungarian mail boat Andrasz parted her anchors and was crashing into other vessels. Messina bay was wiped out and the sea was now covered with masses of wreckage which was carried off in the arms of the receding waters.

Longing for Escaped Prisoners. Eight sailors from the Sappho were landed and took up the work of rescue. Officers and men from Italian and British steamers also went ashore as soon as possible. The British ship, saying a family of five who were imprisoned in a burning house. Many persons from the jail made their escape and looked right and left. Hundreds engaged in the work of rescuing the British officers. The opinion of the officers of the Sappho was that half the population of Messina perished.

Warships to the Rescue. British and Russian squadrons have arrived at Messina. Sailors and marines have been disembarked and they have performed courageous acts in rescuing the injured and removing the wounded. A large number of survivors have been transferred to the warships, which are transporting them to great floating hospitals. It is imperative that the dead be removed

NEW DIPLOMACY

REMOVED THAT TAFT WILL CUT OUT GILT AND FEATHERS AMBASSADORS.

SHIRT SLEEVE METHODS

RED TAFT MIGHTS BOROLOW FROM EUROPE WONT GO WITH NEW PRESIDENT.

WILL RESIGN FROM FORM; BUT

Resignations Will Be Accepted "With Deep Regret" and Uncle Sam Will Have New Diplomats.

Memphis, Dec. 30.—A statement issued by the Commercial Appeal writes its paper from Washington as follows:

"Investigation of the reason for the reported coming resignation of Woodrow Wilson, ambassador to Italy, developed the information from an authoritative source here tonight that Whitlow Field will be retired as ambassador to Great Britain.

"It is the custom for ambassadors to tender their resignations to new presidents, but always with the hope that they will be asked to continue their previous valuable services.

"In the Taft administration this custom has been observed in the more honored in the breach than in the observance. The understanding here now is that the resignation of at least a majority of the ambassadors will be accepted with pleasure. A definitely known exception to this policy is that of the ambassador to Mexico, Mr. Taft and Mr. O'Brien are in thorough accord on the Japanese question.

"In France, Mr. Taft is in entire accord with a Taft group on the whole extent of far east questions.

It is to be noted that Mr. Whitlow Field will tender his resignation at this moment to Mr. Roosevelt. It would be accepted with alacrity by Mr. Roosevelt and understood that he has out-Heroded Herod in his particular views and means of appointing international men and exploitation of rich Americans in London. His style, it is said, does not suit Mr. Roosevelt.

The revolution among the ambassadors could have been foreseen a week ago, said a confident authority tonight, when it was announced that Mr. Taft had been appointed secretary of state, but the chief adviser of Mr. Taft in the selection of his cabinet. That meant that since Knox was the man around whom the allies of anti-Roosevelt powers rallied at Chicago, there was to be a new deal in the embassies of the United States.

Abraham Orinigan is to retire to private life.

He said that Whitlow Field will also find his occupation gone as a diplomat and will retire to private life with Mr. Orinigan. Henry White is not particularly popular with the president-elect, so that probably he will not be retained as secretary of state, but the chief adviser of Mr. Taft in the selection of his cabinet.

The policy of President Taft as respects foreign nations can be well gathered from his acts at the time he was directed by the president to look after the state department. Secretary Root was absent during certain phases of the Chinese revolution in the Panama canal. Secretary of State Ade was instructed to report every afternoon after school to Mr. Taft, secretary of war but really secretary of the treasury.

Mr. Taft disposed of a lot of red tape as he would dispose of a court-martialed case. He took what he did and it was done.

Secretary Taft also was the deus ex machina in the Panama canal. He knew that there would be no camp with Central American or Colombian jurisdiction over, the Panama canal. He therefore applied shirt sleeve diplomacy and created a new republic.

The mercantile is expected to obtain abroad under the Taft administration. They say under their breath that Mr. Taft and his best friend there would have been a Bolshyist President incident. Judge Taft may be expected from the fact that at foreign consulates may be heard by going back a little to the Impres-

HE OVER HILL'S APPOINTMENT OF AMBASSADOR TO IOWA.

While this was at the state department and it was reported from time to time that Mr. Hill was well enough to suit the holder, and besides that his wife was a nurse's aid and went to market on a bicycle, Judge Taft, speaking for the president at the time, said, "Why, the way to settle all this is simply to send Mr. Hill to Iowa."

Judge Taft would have Mr. Hill go to Iowa, and argue the case afterwards.

The ostrich attacked her many times and held on to her for two or three minutes. The marks of the injury will remain some time, but the attending physician does not think they will be permanent.

SEVERAL QUESTIONS INVOLVED.

Garfield Sees Interesting Features Overlooked by Owen.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Secretary Garfield said today that he had detected all possible apocryphal made by the assistant attorney general for the interior department in the preparation of the lost cases that were brought to the United States supreme court from Oklahoma, involving title to a land claim.

The secretary referred to the suit recently brought in Oklahoma by district agents, involving about 20,000 acres of land. Secretary Owen has interrogated a number of the lost cases and a few days ago was quoted as wishing speedy adjudication by the supreme court of a which was the result.

"While I agreed with Senator Owen that the situation should be cleared as speedily as possible," said Secretary Garfield, "I could not agree with him in a talk with me a few days ago that there was but one question of jurisdiction involved. There are several questions which I think must be decided along with the right of congress to place restrictions upon the allotment of the lost lands. There is a large group, if not several groups, of cases taken up for the title."

Consolidated Two Navy Bureaus.

Washington, Dec. 30.—Admiral W. L. Capps, chief constructor of the United States navy, was yesterday assigned by President Roosevelt to the duties of chief of the bureau of engineering. This action is regarded as practically consolidating the bureau of construction and the bureau of engineering, a matter that has long been discussed as a feature of the reorganization of the navy.

RUOF GETS FOURTEEN YEARS

San Francisco Ex-Boss Gets Long Term in Penitentiary for Bribery.

San Francisco, Dec. 30.—Abraham Ruef, former political boss of San Francisco, was yesterday sentenced to fourteen years in the state penitentiary at San Quentin prison. Sentenced was pronounced by Judge William B. Lawlor, who presided over Ruef's trial on the charge of bribing a member of the Schmitz board of supervisors in the ward of an expired trolley franchise to the United Railroad.

The trial, which ended with a completion on December 10, was one of the most celebrated in the history of the city. Ruef for years directed the political destinies of San Francisco as an advisor of the administration of Eugene F. Schmitz, who mayor of the city. Judgment was pronounced at the close of the day, which was devoted to a legal battle wherein the defense sought to introduce many reasons for a new trial. When Judge Lawlor had denied this and other motions involving delay, the defendant arose at the court's command and stood unmoved through the rest of judgment. There was no demonstration on the part of spectators.

The defendant's appeal of court a notice of appeal had been filed on behalf of defendant and the court had signed a writ of probable cause which was set as a stay of execution in the case.

In the trial, which was prolonged nearly four months, Ruef was convicted of bribing John G. Fawcett, a former supervisor, to favor an award of an overhead trolley franchise to the United Railroad company. This was one of the indelible returns against Ruef by the citizen grand jury which heard the confessions of six men who had been indicted for accepting bribes in several matters involving public service corporations.

The defendant's appeal was intended to make the trial of Ruef remarkable was the shouting of Assistant District Attorney Francisco H. Hays, Hays, an associate of Ruef, whose past record was exposed by the prosecutor after Hays had been accepted as a member of the jury. Hays was one of the men who had been recently committed suicide in the county jail.
